Your CHALK

Should be looked after here. In spite of the warm fall we have done so far this season the largest stock of Linens in the city. It goes to show that we are giving the best values for the least money; that the styles and materials of our garments are right up-to-date. Splendid Claret Jackets at $3.95. Special leaders at $2.00 and $2.50. Black Kersey Jackets at $2.50 and $3.00, advancing by easy stages to $5. All of our jackets, even the cheapest, are lined throughout. For the little ones there is a select stock of Bodice from $1.25 to $2.50, most of them made with the new loose backs. Ladies' Automobile Jackets, Pina and Cloth Capes, Collarettes and Boas in great profusion. It will be to your interest to investigate.

THE LINEN STOCK

Was never so large as at present. You'll need linens for Christmas, either for your own use or for gifts. Better buy them now. We never misrepresent. We will tell you what you get and what you pay. Splendid values in Bleached Table Linens from 25c to $1.50 the yard. Linen, Flax and Damask Towels from 10c to $1.00 the pair. Heavy White Dotted do. 25c to $1.00 the yard. MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1900.

PRICE—ONE CENT.

WELL-CONTESTED GAMES.

Champion Kentuckians Spend a Pleasant Day in Maysville.

WON FOUR OUT OF EIGHT GAMES.

Yesterday afternoon and last evening there was royal sport at the Alleys of the Maysville Bowling Club.

The crack Kentuckians of Covington—the champions of all that country round about and a big slice of Ohio town—in-paid the Maysville Club a friendly visit, which incidentally included a desire to add some additional scalp to their belt.

In the afternoon they were matched for three games against three separate teams of local bowlers and rubbers, the first two of which they won; but the last, thanks to the generosity of the visitors, is set down to the credit of the local lobs.

The scores of these games were—

FIRST GAME.

Second GAME.

THIRD GAME.

At 7:30 in the evening the real contest began, and though neither side showed up with a big total, the games were quite exciting, the home team taking three games out of the five by these scores:

At the conclusion of the games, and about the hour when graveyards yawn, the Kentuckians were escorted to Wallace's Manhattan, where President T. M. Russell and Directors W. M. Archdeacon and W. C. Watkins of the Maysville Club had arranged to entertain them and a few friends with a most tempting array of good things.

The visiting bowlers are as clever as gentlemen as one would wish to meet most of their active business men who indulge the game as a pastime and for the pleasure derived from it.

They will always meet a hearty welcome at the hands of the Maysville Club.

WOMEN ALL OVER THE COUNTRY ARE EXERCISED

Over one hundred thousand horses have either died or been killed in the South African war. Ten thousand of these horses and four thousand mules were shipped from this country to South Africa for the English Government.

The faculty of the Northern Indiana Normal School, which enrolls about 3,000 students, has issued an edict prohibiting the playing of football, with the stipulation that it be enforced. This is the first large college in the West to openly wage war on the game.

Jefferson county is the banner Republican county of Kentucky if the vote of the city of Louisville is included, but Whitley takes the palm over all the country counties, coming to the front with a Republican majority of 2,800 in a total vote of less than 4,500.

A by-stander in a Baltimore saloon agreed to pay for all the drinks a man by the name of Joseph Evans could swallow. In seven minutes he had taken 17 whiskeys, 2 schooners of beer and a glass of half and half. Doctors and stomach pumps saved him after hard work.

John W. Hendrie, one of the most prominent and wealthy men of his state and distinguished for his philanthropy and gifts to educational institutions in various parts of the country, died Sunday at his home at Sound Beach, Conn., after an illness of several weeks, from renal debility.

John and Rachel Scott of Randolph county, W. Va., and their children have been weighed recently. The father and mother are still living in the house where their eight sons, whose combined weight is more than a ton, were born and raised. The combined weight of the family is 2,796 pounds, an average weight of 279 2/3 pounds.

AN UNUSUAL DIFFERENCE.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves invulnerable to any affliction with any disease, but that the system is not strong enough to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costly remedy, we have prepared a Syrup of Pines.
